Woolworth Store Construction Under Way

PRETTY SUE HUTCHENS, "Miss Cameron Center," turns the first spadeful of earth as construction started yesterday at Cameron Center for F. W. Woolworth's store, a long needed and awaited Paim Springs debut. Also shown officiating at the groundbreaking ceremony are C. C. Hutchens, center, long-time associate of George E. Cameron, Jr., owner-developer of Cameron Center, and Lew Levy, the Center's general manager. The new Woolworth store, boasting 15,000 square feet of floor space and immediately adjoining Cameron Center's Mayfair Market, will open its doors as P a m tional chain merchandising mart early in Septem-

ASSEMBLED FOR this show are not only a highly selective lineup of the best in stage, screen and TV stars, Village entertainers and other acts but also the combined efforts of a fairly - random sampling of the Palm Springs citizenry.

I'm going to have more to say about this — where else can a millionaire or a star show act be overruled by a druggist or a newspaperman — but right now the important thing is, this show tonight

First of all, let's look at some of the prizes that are to be awarded tonight.

IN THE 'FAST DRAW' contest, the prizes are an Ida Itkin original oil, a weekend for two at the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas or a one-week vacation at the Sunset Towers Hotel here.
In the "Dutch Auction," to be conducted by Dr. George Milkie tonight, the prizes are an oil

Music is the audience and the water."

Music is their forte, but it's the presentation, not the tunes them-selves that makes the De Castro bit worthwile.

On "Old Devil Moon," for instance, Navarro moves into a con ga drum segment that simply romps and Peggy bids fair to go nto instant orbit.

THEIR EULOGY TO the return of good music — followed by some surprise samples — is cleverly executed (and the writers of those songs should have the same treat-

Another very bright point in their show is the meringue item which they used in encore last night. Particularly hilarious was the Rowe interpretation of that fabled Latin dance.

Amazingly versatile - Rowe plays trumpet, sings and dances and Navarro plays guitar and conga, sings and dances - the tric romp all over the Starlite Room stage. But it's Peggy, as said above, who is the life and breath of the act.

BEFORE THEY GOT on stage, Carole King had already presented a three-faceted Mexican dance act and comic Jay Lawrence had sur-mounted an early audience indifference to liven the entire room. Carole winds up her third seg-

Finchy P-JA Closes Year with Program

Musical development through the elementary grades was the subject of an entertaining program, at the last meeting of the year for Katherine Finchy P-TA, held in the school cafetorium Wednesday evening. John Mount, principal, acted as master of ceremonies and commentator for the "Final Fling" which featured students from all grades.

Highlights of the ogram were folk songs done in Spanish and French by the Kindergartens, "All French by the Kindergartens, "All Night, All Day" by Mrs. Arnold's second grade, a melody by Mrs. Smith's fourth grade and selections by the school orchestra under the direction of Richard Dahlgran. Closing songs were presented by the choir composed of fourth through sixth grade students who are instructed by Miss Marguerite Wilcox.

Following the program Mrs. John Spargur, president, conducted a brief business meeting during which three awards were presented. On behalf of the Boy Scouts, Mrs. Spargur presented a plaque of commendation to Glen Riley, for outstanding assistance with the recent Scout-O-R a m a. Also receiving two scouting awards was Mrs. Gerald Fostvedt, program chairman, who was giv-en the Den Mother's Award, the highest honor a Den Mother can her certificate of completion of training in Scouting work.

Refreshments of cookies and ounch were served to the 150 pa ents attending, as well as the children who performed, by Mrs. James Dupuis, hospitality chairman, who was assisted by Mmes.
